

Six Things You Can Do This Week

Take what you've learned back with you by evaluating policies and starting conversations in the next few weeks.

Team Discussion

Have a discussion with your team using the questions provided.

Define Racism

Define what "racism" means when used in your organization.

Evaluate Policy

Pick one policy or procedure to evaluate and start the process.

Take Note

Take note of who is left out. Who is in the room and who isn't represented?

Notice Color

Instead of taking a "colorblind" approach, try to notice the injustices you see related to color.

Look at Vendors

Who are your vendors? What is the racial breakdown of your vendors? Do you notice any patterns?

Contact us to learn more!

www.SidecarGlobal.com