

Questions Every Organization Should Ask

Asking the right question can make a difference. Remember, if you have to defend it, you need to reexamine it.

Who's in the picture and who's left out? Why is that?

What do we tell ourselves to make it ok not to change?

Are we proud of this organization? Why?

What kind of organization do we want?

What does your organization offer to our community? Are we fulfilling that?

Contact us to learn more!

www.SidecarGlobal.com